

Study in Hawai'i!

Hawai'i Pacific University's visiting student program is designed for international students who want to spend one or two semesters in an inviting, international environment. Our visiting student program allows students to earn credits that can either be transferred to another university or toward a degree at Hawai'i Pacific University.

Business Administration: Management and Marketing

Hotel and Resort Management
Business in Contemporary Society
International Business Management
Principles of Marketing
Product Development

Business Administration: Finance, Economics and Information Systems

Principles of Accounting
Intermediate Microeconomics
Money and Banking
International Trade and Finance
Investments

Communication

Communication and Culture
Sex and Gender in Communication Contexts
Nonverbal Communication
New Media Strategies and Sales
Selected Topics in Mass
Communications

*Courses may require prerequisites

For more information about the Visiting Student Program, please go to visithpu.com. If you have any questions about course prerequisites, please contact visiting@hpu.edu.

